About the Musicians:

Eveleen Olsen was born and raised in Switzerland. She studied at the Musikhochschule Luzern graduating with a Masters of teaching the violin.

Felicitas Maria Speer is from Salzburg, where she studied viola, recorder and classroom music teaching at the Universität Mozarteum.

Magdalena Cieślak was born in Warsaw, Poland. She was educated at Elsner School of Music and studied music theory as well as violin. She was admitted to the University of Warsaw and continued her studies at the Institute of Musicology.

Eveleen, Felicitas and Magdalena are at present studying for a Master degree at the Royal Welsh College of Music & Drama. They are students in the department of Historical Performance with Rachel Podger and are playing in the Welsh Baroque Orchestra and other baroque ensembles in Britain.

About the Evening:

The evening brings together two societies which share a common language and interests. It also provides a platform for three young international musicians studying in the city.
All proceeds from the tickets & raffle (after costs) will go to the Lord Mayor's charity: The Bobath Children's Therapy Centre Wales in recognition of the Lord Mayor's support towards our societies.
